Living at Loch Arthur Community In Scotland

AndAmongst other things,.....

Making Cheese, Yoghurt and Cream-cheese

We are a small land-based Community working with adults with learning disabilities and offer a rich experience, living and working in a beautiful part of Scotland.

This could be an exciting opportunity for you:

To be part of the life in one of our houses
and the life in our community and

to become an integral part of the team that carries our wonderful creamery into the future

You will need a huge amount of interest in People , Community Life and Cheese.

To come with or having the aptitude to develop the skills in traditional methods of making cheese and dairy products,

While enjoying, supporting and working with people with a range of different abilities.

We are looking for someone to join us early in the New Year.

We are very much looking forward to hearing from you.

Rike and Emma
